Visitors:

Old Business

The job description for the new position of Utilities Biller I was reviewed by the Council along with input from Mr. Thomas. It was decided to run an advertisement for a part time position as soon as possible and until it is filled.

The liquor permit submitted by the Alumni Committee requesting public consumption of alcohol during the 2020 Alumni Weekend was discussed. The Council would like Mr. Thomas to ask a spokesperson from the committee to come to a council meeting so that the permit could be discussed further.

New Business:

Council Member Machen would like the Council to be made aware of an event that the Gove County Community Foundation is hosting. The Foundation is organizing a dinner and presentation to members of the community who would like information on estate planning as it pertains to donations to the Foundation. The presentation will be led by team members from the Greater NWK Foundation Investment Arm and will be held sometime at the end of the month, beginning of March.
